! From the Hartford Times. The last Procession. Methought at eventide I paused, One cold November day, Where dry and grim an "ash-pole" stood, Like ghost beside the way;

When on mine ear a wail arose, And slowly o'er mine eye, With solemn tread a lengthened train, In funeral guise, swept by.

First, with a face whose depth of gloom Ambition's blight had cast, The "Mill-Boy of the Slashes" moved The chiefest mourner past; And then to soothe his rising grief, With sympathetic tear, With solemn air, so meek and good,

Walked Frelinghuysen near. With "branding-iron" in each hand. From his far travels come, Unsolaced in his deep despair, Stalked "Roorback," dard and glum; While dolorous upon the breeze, All wheezingly and wide, Like his own windy bellows, the "Poughkeepsie blacksmith" sighed.

And then that " coach expressly built," And decked with silk and gold, The great "embodiment" to bear, With sullen motion rolled; And as along the dusky way Its darkening course it kept, Beside it, with his Clay "Tribune," Poor Greeley walked and wept.

Then thronged a long and dismal host, A thousand men or mere, And each upon a frowzy rag A scurvy motto bore; And colporteurs, with "Junius" tracts, A crushing, weary load, Bent down with weariness and woe. In sad procession trode.

And sorely on his wounded calf, With tear-drops in his eye, The great god-father of the "Whigs," Th' immortal Webb, limped by; A doleful dirge Joe Hoxie sang, Amidst that sorrowing train, And "Glee Clubs" and "Clay minstrels" The melancholy strain.

And thus they passed in long array. At evening's sombre hour, And grief was heavy on each heart, With its o'ermastering power; For broken, "busted," "gone to pot," Exploded, vanished, fled, The great Whig party was no more-"That same old Coon" was dead!

Who is Mrs. James K. Polk? The Whigs were at first at some loss to know something about the President Elect. The enquiry ran thro' their papers, " Who is James K. Polk?" A Charming Portrait.—Gaze into pure fountain in the moment in which day divides itself from night; see the magic light of morning at once mirroring itself stars, and thou has an image of Nina's soul. So pure was she-so gleamed in the depths of her being ever eternal truth. But all this sweet splendor broke as thro' a twilight; it was a foretelling of light, not of light itself. She was the original man -as man in his innocence -in his first, holy beauty. Her soul seemed to be one with the beautiful body, it belonged to it, and appeared molton in it. Her manner possessed that charming repose, which nothing of self-consciousness can counterteit. Unconstrained but modest, she was still self-collected. It gave sweet tranquility to the mind and to the eye to contemplate her. How beautiful and harmonious were the movements of her tender arm, of her fine white hand; her gait how floating, idence, or her own folly? how quiet and noble! It would be difficult to give a description of the beauties and -must have declared with Miss Greta. that she was the loveliest creature of God's creation. Her eyes had the same form as those of her sister Adelaide, but with a much less lively glance. Over Nina's dark blue eye, lay, as it were, a mist of twilight, whose magic was indescribable. Something pensive, something dreamy, lay in her glance. No clear day, no gay life, spoke out of it; but something foreboding, something of an inward emotion. When she listened to the words of another, she had the most amiable expression of present sympathy; and when she answered in her own manner, rather slowly, but in the most delicious tones of voice, one learned then to estimate one of the most beautiful, but commonly most neglected,

> Political Courtship .- The following ittle story, (says the Balt, Sun,) which belongs to the New York Mercury, is decidedly one of the best things produced during the late campaign, and inasmuch as all the States hereabouts have concluded their labors with the Presidential contest, we think we shall run no risk of oversetting the Constitution, or treading upon the most fastidious toe in the universe, by affording our readers a chance for the same hearty laugh into which we were betrayed, spite of the multitude of units, tens and thousands, which the election returns are constantly whirling through our inner man. We see too, that that rule has been abolished! Time was, when we have no doubt, the abolition of this Rule would not have been cause of much alarm to the slaveholding States; but that time has gone past. Its duration for years past has been made a test question between the North and the South, or rather, between the Abolitionists of the North and the slaveholding interest of the South. Its abolition then at this late day, cannot but fill the minds of the South with gloomy forebonexation of Texas as a quesion of the most dings. In another part of our paper, to vital importance to all sections and interwhich we call the especial attention of our readers, it will be seen that Massachusetts has thought proper to send into South Carolina a special agent, for the purpose of fomenting the already too much excited feelings of the South on this subject. It will be seen that South Carolina, in her soverign capacity, has ordered this Abolition emmisary to leave her territory. What will be the issue of all this, we peace and harmony of the Union, the matare unable to say. We do hope for the ter will rest at this point.

Plantation Melodists.

For the last three or four nights we have had a band of musicians in our town perwould say, the negro character. We had the pleasure of witnessing their performance on Wednesday night last, and we will say for them that they did the thing "right genteelly." Had our sides not been a little of the stoutest, we should certainly have come away considerably worsted.

We believe the whole audience was pleased with the night's entertainment, ladies and all, for cast our eye where we would, every body was bursting with posterity, through ages to come, will not laughter. A good house is the best test of the merit of all such performances, and a reckless and wanton dereliction of duty judging by this criterion this company must excel, for we understand it draws a "crowd" every night. They do or say nothing which can possibly offend the most delicate ear. We understand they are going to visit Charleston in a lew days.

The Texas Question After the Election. Our Whig opponents have charged the Democratic party with making the Annexation of Texas a hobby horse, on which to ride into power; and that as soon as the Election would be over we would virtually abandon it. Now, for our own part, and we believe all of our readers will agree with us, we say that no such motives induced us to take up and make this question one of the great issues in the recent contest. We have always considered the an-ests of the Union, but particularly to the South. The termination of the contest, and its glorious result, not only has not changed the views, or abated the zeal, of the Democracy of North Carolina on this subject, but has confirmed and stimulated their long cherished and often expressed wishes, to see that Territory once more that when I left home from the absence of the not a single question discussed during the election. FOR RENT.

THE upper part of the commodious house fronting on Market street, over the store now occupied by the subscriber, and on the west side of the family beidence of Mr. Guy C. Hotchkiss. Said dwelling is now being completed and fitted up in a style not inferior to any in the town of Wilmington, and from its location, and many advantages, having fourteen superior finished rooms, a new two story brick Kitchen, and a spacious yard, opening in Toomer's Alley, with all other requisites and conveniences, is well calculated and adapted for a genteel Boarding House.

The above is to be completed by the first of November, when possession will be given. For further particulars enquire of the subscriber. V. R. PEIRSON.

from 10 to 14 years of age. V. R. PEIRSON. Oct. 18, 1844. FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

ELOPED from the subscriber, on the 1st in-stant, a negro man, named BILL, 26 years of age, about 5 feet 4 or 6 inches high, dark complexion, has an impediment in his speech, and a downward look when spoken to.

The said negro had on, when he left, a homespun suit, (a round-about and pants,) and cap, but other clothes with him.

It is thought he will attempt to pass as a freeman, under an assumed name, as William Hays, or Simmons. He is known to visit his old haunts in the neighborhood of his wife, who is owned by Mr. Jos. Dunn, Duplin Co., and he no doubt ranges at times in the southern part of Wayne county, where he is, or has been, at work.

The above reward will be given for the appre hension and delivery of said negro to me, at Mr. G. W. Bannerman's residence, Bladen county, or lodged in jail so I may get him again. COLIN SHAW. Gravilly Hill, Bladen Co., N. C. 3

PROSPECTUS

DAVID PULTON, Disto

TERMS .- $2 50 if paid in advance; $3 00 at the end of three months; $3 50 at the expiration of the year. No paper dispaid, except at the option of the publishers.

Having been induced, at the solicitation of some of the members of the Democratic party, to take charge of the Republican Press in this place, we will hereafter, on every Friday morning, issue a Democratic paper, under the above title, at the office of the late "Wilmington Messenger," in the Town of Wilmington.

As we have given a brief outline of the principles the "Journal" will advocate in our first number, we think it unaccessary again to reiterate the political doctrines it will be our constant and earnest endeavor to inculcate. On the present occasion, therefore, we will merely state, that the "Journal" will be the uncompromising opponent of each and every "link" in the whole of the "great chain" of Whig measures—a United States Bank—a Protective Tariff—the Bankrupt Act—Internal Improvements by the General Government, &c., &c.—While on the other hand it will, so far as our humble abilities will enable us, be the firm friend and supporter of the Constitution as it was left us by our fathers; and of a strict construction of that Constitution, thereby ensuring the rights of the several States which compose the Confederacy. But we set cut with the idea of not going into details. It would be a needless tax upon the reader's time. Suffice it to say, that the "Journal" will be a Democratic Paper, and will always advocate Democratic men and Democratic measures.

Although the "Journal" will be a political paper, yet, in order that it may also be agreeable to the general reader, its columns will always be open to such items of intelligence as will be interesting to the Farmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, &c. Agriculture, Trade, she state of the Markets, &c., together with a slight glance at polite literature occasionally, will receive our attention, We hope we will not be considered too "personal in our remarks" when we offer a few suggestions to our friends touching the necessity there exists for keeping on foot a Democratic Press in the Town of Wilmington.

In the first place, Wilmington is a place of the greatest commercial importance of any in the State: it is situated in a Democratic District: there is a great deal of intercourse carried on by the citizens of the lower portion of the State with this place, and consequently a Press here would be calculated to do as much good, in diffusing information, as perhaps at any other point in the State. Again, there are, we believe, three Federal to every one Democratic paper in the State, and this we feel confident, is the reason why North Carolina placed a Whig in her Gubernatorial Chair at our recent election: for we feel assured that it only requires a fair comparison to be instituted between the policy of the Federal and Democratic parties to ensure for the latter the most triumphant success. Well now, it is impossible for a Press to be kept up unless our friends will patronize it by subscribing themselves and inducing others to "go and do likewise." For, gentle reader, we suppose you are aware, and if you are not, we will tell you, that Printers and Editors are so far like other mortals that it requires something more than air to feed and kind wishes to clothe them. Therefore, we hope that every Democrat into whose hands this Prospectus may fall, will do all he can to insure the success of the "Journal" and the cause of Democracy. DAVID FULTON.

NOTE .- It being out of our power to send a copy of our Prospectus to every person who might doubtless be disposed to exert himself to procure subscribers to the "Journal," we have printed the Prospectus in our paper as it appears above, with the hope that our friends will cut it out and attach the same to a sheet of paper, and procure as many subscribers as they can conveniently, and send their names to us at as early a day as possible.

September 18th, 1844. PROSPECTUS OF THE "DISTRICT DEMOCRAT."

(OXFORD, NORTH CAROLINA.)

HE Undersigned propose to publish in the Town of Oxford, Granville County, North Carolina, a paper to be entitled the "DISTRICT DEMOCRAT," devoted to Politics, Agricultum and General Intelligence, provided a sufficient number of subscribers can be obtained to justif them in the undertaking. They deem it unners sary to enter into a minute detail of their political tenets, but think it will suffice to say, that they opposed to the political measures of the miscalle Whig Party; believing them to be submissive a our Constitution, dangerous to our civil liberty, in jurious to the welfare of our country, and our pean and prosperity as a nation. With such belief, we will oppose by every fair and honorable means, the election of Henry Clay of Kentucky, to the Presdential Chair, as he is the head and leader of that party, and has pledged himself to procure the Fdments of the same. Moreover, having open pledged himself to tamper with the Constitution under which we have lived so long and so prospe rously, and to destroy or mutuilate that power (the Veto,) which is now and was created for its safeguard, we cannot keep from viewing, as must erery other true Democrat, his elevation to that seat, 20 which he is now, and has been seeking for so many years, by every means in his power, as an en in the political history of our government, that must be regarded by every true patriot with fair and ap prehension, for the consequences that must enac. Such being our opinions with regard to Mr. Clay's political character, we shall hoist at the head of our columns for President and Vice President of see, and George M. Dallas of Pennsylvania; and shall use every fair and honorable means to ensure their election. To do this, we earnestly solicit at port; being more numerous they are better able to support a press than the opposite party; and yet in Taking these things into consideration, we hum bly submit, whether justice to themselves, the cause and principles they profess, and a regard for the credit of the District to which they belong don not demand at their hands some local vehicle of information on political subjects.
